BY-LAWS
CAPITAL DISTRICT CHAPTER
OF THE
NEW YORK STATE SOCIETY OF PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS

BY-LAW 1 - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership applications may be received at either the National, State or Chapter level and reviewed for eligibility by the Membership Committee. If deemed to be eligible by the Chapter Membership Committee, the applicant shall be added to the rolls and the State and National Societies notified. If deemed to be eligible by the State Membership Committee, the applicant will be added to the rolls and the Chapter and National Society notified subject to review by the Chapter Membership Committee.

Section 2. Membership in the Chapter imposes the obligation to uphold the honor and dignity of the engineering profession. It is therefore required of members to be familiar with ethical and legal standards, to observe them, to aid in preventing violations by others and to be familiar with the Chapter’s policies and procedures relative to handling alleged violations.

Section 3. Violation of the Chapter Constitution and By-laws, the Code of Ethics, or for conviction of a felony, shall be considered as just cause for discipline as hereinafter provided.

BY-LAW 2 - DISCIPLINE

Section 1. Charges or complaints of alleged violations of the Code of Ethics or of laws and regulations governing the profession may be filed in writing by anyone having factual knowledge of the matters; charges concerning the Constitution and By-laws shall be filed by a member in good standing. Each member is responsible to render written reports of factual knowledge he/she has of alleged violations of the Code of Ethics. Such charges may be filed with the Chapter Secretary or with the Chair of the Ethical Practices Committee of the State Society.

Section 2. The Chapter will make an initial informal investigation of alleged violations. When such informal investigations indicate that a formal investigation is advisable, the matter shall be directed to the attention of the State Society President for appropriate action.
