ARTICLE VIII – NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Section 1. Nomination for officers shall be made by a Nominating Committee. This committee shall be appointed by the President no later than March 1st of the year of his/her term, and shall consist of not less than three and not more than five members of the Chapter, in good standing, one of whom shall be a Past President, who shall serve as the chair of the Committee.

Section 2. The Nominating Committee shall meet and report the names of its nominees at a designated Board meeting of the Chapter. One or more nominations shall be made for each office. No persons serving on the Nominating Committee shall be eligible for nomination. Other nominations may be made from the floor, following the Nominating Committee’s report, by any person holding membership in good standing in the Chapter. Acceptance of nomination must be made by a nominee before his/her name may be placed on the ballot. The total list of nominees must be approved by the Board and is to be circulated for letter balloting.

Section 3. Letter ballots, bearing the names of all nominees under the eligible positions and a blank space provided under each position for the use of the voter if he desires to submit another name, shall be marked with proper voting instructions by the Secretary to all members at least 10 days before the Annual Chapter Meeting, well prior to the end of the administrative year. Election returns announced at the Annual Chapter Meeting shall be the result of the ballots received before the close of the polls at the Annual Meeting and shall be delivered to the Nominating Committee, who shall act as tellers. Election results shall be determined by a simple majority of eligible votes cast.

Section 4. The Nominating Committee shall endeavor to attain a Board of Directors balanced among the various branches of engineering and type of employment.

ARTICLE IX – MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular Meetings – All Chapter meetings shall be held at the time and place determined by the Board.

Section 2. Board Meetings - The Board shall meet in regular or special meetings at such time and place as may be determined by the Board. All meetings of the Board except special closed meetings shall be open to all members of the Society. Members other than the Board shall be accorded floor privileges at the discretion of the Chair.
Section 3. Special Meetings – May be held at the call of the President, Board and/or members as provided for in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE X - HEADQUARTERS

Section 1. Headquarters of the Chapter shall be established by the Board.

ARTICLE XI - COMMITTEES

Section 1. Such committees as may be appropriate shall be established as provided in the Bylaws.

Section 2. The duties of the committees shall be defined by the Board.

ARTICLE XII – PRACTICE DIVISIONS

Section 1. Upon written petition of a reasonable percentage of persons holding membership in the Chapter who have common professional problems and interests, the Board may grant permission to such persons to organize as a Practice Division corresponding to that of the State Society and operate under the Constitution and Bylaws of the Chapter.

Section 2. Practice divisions may elect as officers a chair, Vice Chair, and Secretary. The Chair of any practice division may appoint committees to promote the activities of the division. The Secretary of any practice division shall file with the Secretary of the Chapter the minutes of any meeting of such division or of the officers thereof. The activities of any practice division shall be in accord with the objectives, Constitution and Bylaws of the Chapter.

ARTICLE XIII – AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed by: (a) a petition in writing signed by not less than 25 members of this Chapter who are in good standing and eligible to vote; (b) a majority vote of the Board; (c) by a petition signed by not less than one half of the Board members, provided that the text of the proposed amendment shall have been mailed to the members of the Board not less than 10 days prior to the Board meeting when the amendment shall be considered. Amendments submitted by the petition shall be reviewed by the Board before being submitted to the Secretary for ballot. The findings of this review may be transmitted to the members at the discretion of the Board.
Section 2. Proposed amendments to the Constitution, together with a letter ballot, shall be mailed to each member eligible to vote. Ballots shall be returned postmarked not later than the date prescribed.

Section 3. If the total vote is at least 20% of the total membership and if two-thirds or more of the members voting shall declare themselves in favor of the proposed amendment(s), the same shall become a part of this Constitution. If the total vote is less than 20% of the total members eligible to vote, and if two-thirds or more of the members voting declare themselves in favor of the proposed amendment(s), the same shall be voted on by the Chapter Board of Directors at the next scheduled Board meeting following execution of the ballot. If two-thirds or more of the Board declare themselves in favor of the proposed amendment(s) the same shall become part of this Constitution.

ARTICLE XIV – SAVING CLAUSE

Section 1. Any article or section of the Constitution or Bylaws found to be in conflict with the State Society or NSPE Constitution or Bylaws shall be null and void. However, this shall in no way invalidate the remaining articles and sections of the Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE XV – BYLAWS

Section 1. The Board shall prepare and adopt a series of Bylaws which shall govern all procedures under this Constitution, including those of the Board and of the committees.

   Section 2. The Bylaws may be amended by an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board present at a meeting provided that the text of the proposed amendment shall be mailed to the Board at least 20 days before the meeting at which the vote on the amendment will be taken and shall become effective as of the date of passage.

ARTICLE – EFFECTIVE DATE

   Section 1. This Constitution shall become effective upon its adoption in the manner prescribed for voting on amendments and thereupon the previous Constitution and prior amendments thereto are repealed.
